In one page, describe why you are becoming a doctor. Write your answers in paragraph form.

1. Who am I?
   a. Describe a little bit about your personality and professional attributes that motivated you to apply to medical school.
   b. This will be your “hook” paragraph drawing in readers.
2. How did you arrive to choose your specialty?
3. Why is your chosen field good for you?
4. What are your long-term goals? or Where to you see yourself in the future?

Pre-Writing Techniques:

1. Write down questions you want to answer.
2. Make a list after each one of your ideas.
3. Write into paragraphs.
4. Look for connections linking your paragraphs on final copy.
